DESCRIPTION

Exclusively Listed By Coldwell Banker Cambodia The newest addition to the famed Olympia City development is the "Olympia Financial Building". Leasehold buildings are now available for sale. A great addition to your property portfolio, with a highly projected return. The Olympia City financial center is a late-modernist high-rise skyscraper under construction in Phnom Penh, Cambodia. The office tower is set to rise many stories above the city and includes floors devoted to finance. Construction of the glass and steel building is expected to be modern style, the only one in Cambodia. Breaking ground early last month just north of the National Olympic Stadium, the project comprises a series of eight- and 10-storeys segments – with three basement floors – that house a shopping mall, clinic, restaurants, and 27 flats measuring 24m by 8.2m each.
